Dear Henri:

A rumor has circulated (of which Fred Waingrow only yesterday made me aware) that I made plans to resume a concert career and, subsequently, resign my position with the Society.

This is totally without foundation!

I informed you some time ago that I had started to practice again (from 5-7 each morning!). If, after such prolonged absence from my instrument, I can get my fingers back into shape again, remains a moot question.

At any rate, should I succeed in bringing my playing up to concert-pitch, I may have the opportunity of performing in some of the neighboring schools and colleges. This activity, if it at all materializes, I emphasize, would in no way effect or interfere with my functions in behalf of the Society's administration.

I like and am devoted to my work and I expect to share with you many of the ups and downs to come of a hopefully benign future for the CSSC.

Yours,

cc: Mr. Frederick R. Waingrow

P.S.: in the wake of Computicket's folding I shall meet with the Ticketron representative next Tuesday.
