Helen Geisel, VICE PRESIDENT

January 17, 1963

My dear Mr. Temianka:

How very kind of you and how thoughtful, to think of us on the occasion of your Gala on February 1st. From your list of patrons, and your plans for the evening, it surely sounds as though it is going to be a memorable occasion.

Unfortunately, Mr. Geisel and I will have to refuse with deep regret. We have had an unusually busy holiday season with Mr. Geisel's father here from the east, and all sorts of business activities as well, so that for the next couple of months we have got to stay close to our grindstone and just get things done.

We do appreciate so much, however, your asking us, and wish you every success on the occasion.

Sincerely,
