Dear Miss Geschmay:

Thank you for your letter of April 5. I would be delighted to work with you, but unfortunately shall not be available this summer. I am going around the world beginning June 20th and returning September 20th.

Should you arrive here before the 20th of June, I would be delighted to see you and perhaps discuss plans for the future.

There are many fine violinists in this city. The most reputable teacher is Miss Eudice Shapiro, who teaches at USC. Others are Myron Sandler at San Fernando State College, and Vera Barstow in Long Beach. I shall be glad to help you as much as I can.

Yours cordially,

HT:pk
