2 December 1969

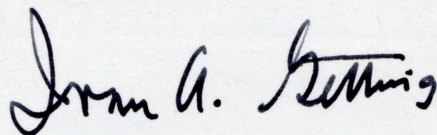

Dear Mr. Temianka:

We were to have lunch together on 10 December to discuss possible membership on your Board of Trustees. I now find that business matters will prevent me from having this lunch with you.

I have given further consideration to the possibility of my joining your Board of Trustees. It appears to me that with my heavy schedule and other personal commitments I am not in a good position to be of any real help to you. I am, of course, deeply interested in your organization and very much enjoy your concerts. I will continue to support your organization by modest contributions; but, I feel that you should seek membership for your Board with people who are in a better position to be of help.

Many thanks for your considerations.

Sincerely,

IAG:lll
