Dear Mr Temianka

Mr Tully Potter, of the Daily Mail, very kindly rang this office to tell Dr Donald Mitchell that you will be in London for a few days after Easter. It is exciting to know that you knew and worked with Benjamin Britten and, what is more, corresponded with him.

Dr Mitchell very much hopes to hear from you when you are in London and would welcome the opportunity of discussing those Britten letters you have in your possession.

With kind regards

Yours sincerely

EILEEN BELL
