How sweet of you to write me dear Tullia Mary! I am heartbroken that my rotten health bugged up our so-looked-forward-to China trip. Yehudi's China expeditions in '79 + '82 bore so much fruit & they were so grateful to him for opening up & showing the way for other renowned talented violinists that his being at the competition would have crystallized all he'd done.
 Alas! I am sure knowing what a loyal moving friend Yehudi is, he will credit Yehudi a little tribute in his Musical America article. Today Yehudi writes such lyrical English, no-one better to do this. much love to both

How sweet of you to write me, Dear Emma May! I am heartbroken that my rotten health bugged up our so-looked-forward-
to China trip. Yehudi's China expeditions
in '79 + '82 bore so much fruit + they
were so grateful to him for opening up + showing the way for their enormously talented violinists that his being at the competition would have completed all he's done.

Alas! I am sure knowing what a loyal + loving friend Dear Henri is, he will credit Y. with a little tribute in his Musical America article. Hooray – Henri writes such lyrical English, no one better to do this. Much love to both xx
