Moscow, 8 - 2- 60.

Dear friend Henri,

I have received your letter and beautiful photograph in New York before leaving for Europe and would like to express my sincerest thanks for your thoughtfulness. You know how happy I was to see you again in Los Angeles after a 25-year interval, and happy to see that you remained a good, lovely friend, exactly the way we used to be when we were younger, at the beginning of our careers.

I was even happier to visit your lovely home and to become acquainted for a long tour. But when you return, I will tell you about my sincere feelings of friendship towards you.

After a short rest I am again intensively at work, performing and teaching. Tomorrow in Moscow I'm playing Mozart G Major, the first concerto by Szymanowski, and the Concert Suite by Taneiev.

After four concerts this week I am going to Scandinavia and Paris, returning home only on the 10th of March. I send you and your lovely wife and all your family sincere wishes of happiness and success and I embrace you.

Many greetings to Piatigorsky and our violist partner whose name I don't remember.

Yours David

P.S. Please forgive me for burdening you with the translation of my letter, but it is very difficult for me to write in German.
