Moscow, 24/11/36.

Dear Henri!

I was happy to receive news from you. It was a big pleasure for me to read that all your activities are going brilliantly. I would very much like to hear you perform a Mozart Violin Concerto. Vsevold Topilin told me that you play the Mozart D Major Concerto beautifully.

Everything is the same with us. I play a great deal, my work is very interesting, life is full. I was in the Philharmonic and talked about the possibility of your visiting the Soviet Union. They told me that a tour would be desirable, but the Philharmonic regrets that they were not notified earlier, and now it is too late for this season.

The Philharmonic would like to start negotiations with you regarding next season, and requests that you write to them in the spring with a view to an agreement.

All your friends will be happy to see and hear you.

Here we have a group of violinists who are preparing for the Ysaye Competition in Brussels. What do you know about this Competition? Who is going to play? Will it be interesting? What do they say about it in Europe?

We'll be happy to hear about this if you have time. Wishing you good health and success.

I embrace you,

Dodik

Tamara and Sweva send regards.
