Dear friend Henry,

Since our departure from Los Angeles, the days have passed so rapidly that I did not have a minute left to myself to write you. I am now going to do so with great pleasure.

In the first place, I should like to express to you and to your wonderful Emmy, our great appreciation for the warm and friendly hospitality which you extended to us. You are truly wonderful friends and we feel like members of the same family. Thank you, dear ones.

The experience of making music with you and with your superb orchestra has left indelible memories with me. Your orchestra consists of excellent musicians who give their souls to the music and its performance. In each one of them burns the eternal flame of the true artist.

In your person, they have a leader and an artist who unites them in their artistic efforts, who discards all that is unnecessary and superfluous and whose perceptive conducting enables the orchestra to achieve the highest artistic results.

Playing with you and with your orchestra I felt exalted, free and unfettered, and for this I express my deep gratitude to all of you, collectively and individually.

I am amazed that you were able to play the Bach Concerto so magnificently after conducting the entire evening.

We say in Russia: "An apple doesn't fall far from the tree." I mention this because you have wonderful children and I wish that their lives will be a source of joy to you.

Tamara is recovering slowly. She sends all of you affectionate kisses and thanks. I also send you my best wishes for health and happiness.

Sincerely yours,

David
