Dearest Tami :

I have marked my engagement book with red \star s; one for each day beginning with the 17th until the 26th. On the twenty-sixth Walter and I are supposed to leave for Aspen but that still depends on many things. However, for every day that you are free in Chicago you will have us as your constant loving companions. IT would be heavenly if Emmy and Danny were here with you; but I understand Emmy's reluctance to bring Danny into such a vile climate and what would the poor child do on our dirty streets?

Call me as soon as you get in so that we may make PLANS.

With open arms —
