Dear Henri:

Just a note to tell you how deeply I appreciated the warmth -- yes, even the flattery of Friday night. Of course, musically it was as always superb, but I would be less than human if I did not tell you that I was personally flattered and pleased. Especially do I appreciate the gift of the books. They are handsome, and I have already had a chance to glance over one volume quickly which convinces me I shall read into all volumes.

Thanks again for your always extraordinary capacity to blend the felicitous with the sensitive.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Franklin", written over the word "Sincerely,".
