Dear Henri:

Thanks for your note of November 1 suggesting that Judy and I host a reception at our home in honor of Roy and Johana Harris some time prior to the concert on January 14.

Normally, I would be delighted to do so, for, of course, I am very fond of Roy and Johana, but on this occasion I must tell you that it is not feasible. Judy and I will have our family with us the early part of the Christmas vacation and intend to be gone on a trip during the latter part of the Christmas holidays. The month of January is already filled to overflowing, including a number of activities at the house, and there is simply a limit to what Judy and the staff are able to support. I do hope you will understand.

Sincerely

P.S. In fact, my schedule in January is such that there is great likelihood that I will not even be able to attend the concert.
