Dear Mr. Peck:

Thank you for your letter of June 16. The history of the text to the Haydn work is so unusual, and fascinating, that I think it best to send you the enclosed prefaces from two different editions of the work, as well as the English adaptation by an English clergyman.

The dates of the concerts are November 7, 1982; January 9, February 6, ~~March 27~~, and May 1, 1983.

Should you find it possible to participate, your early decision on the preferred date would be most helpful, and greatly appreciated.

With best wishes for a happy Roman summer,

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
