Dear Henri:

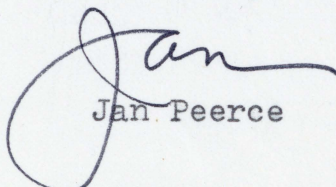

Please excuse the delay in answering your letter, as I have been halfway around the world and back. I am now on tour with a new show Laugh A Little, Cry A Little before they take it to Broadway.

If it is not too late to accdpt being a guest at your Allegra Ball, I would like very much to be a part of it. Have you any approximate idea as to when you would like to have it. The problem now is that we have to wait until the play adjusts itself.

However, please let me know if you feel that I can be of any assistance.

Alice joins me in sending our warmest regards to you and your lovely lady,

Sincerely,

Jan Peerce
