Mr. Charles Lieber
389 West End Avenue
New York, New York 10024

Dear Charles:

Of course I am planning on a good visit with you and Mimi on Wednesday, April 18, and accept your supper invitation "en principe" with enthusiasm. However, there may be circumstances beyond my control, such as a supper planned by the powers that be, in which case the worst that can happen is that you will be my guests instead of I yours. Before the concerts there could be a last minute rehearsal, so I dare not make any other commitment. To coin a felicitous phrase, we shall play it by ear, and have a good visit, come hell or high water.

With love to all of you,

Yours ever,

Henri
