My Dear Natalie:

Your monumental achievement with regard to the production of The Magic Flute which I witnessed last Friday night leaves me almost speechless with admiration. Without your inspiring musical direction and endless dedication this could never have happened. Please also convey my very special congratulations to Robert Duerr, Frans Boerlage and your other associates.

Attending the performance has given me some very clear ideas about the way we should go with our concert performance on May 4. Please let us discuss this as soon as you have a moment.

With love and admiration,

Henri Temianka

P.S. I enclose a verse inspired by the performance, of which I am sending a copy to Frans in appreciation of his own excellent synopsis of The Magic Flute in the program.
