Dear Henrie -

It was so good of you to send me the article from the S.A. Times.

Since Janice's mother died last year at the age of 93, we no longer come to S.A.
However, I keep hoping that one of these days we shall come, especially since we still have some problems with her estate.

At any rate, when we do, you will be the first to know it.

I thought it was a very nice article.
You should be very proud. I'm sure this will not be the end of your career.

Janice and I send all our love to you and Ermy, and we both look forward to meeting again. With all our love - Gordon
