Dear Emmy:

I was saddened when I received the notice of Henri's death which my nephew sent me from the Los Angeles Times.

I grieve because the world of music has lost a giant among its artists. But, I rejoice because Henri counted me among his friends.

Emmy, I shall never forget the many musicales that you and Henri put on for my benefit when all I could do was lay stretched out on your sofa and afterwards stuff myself on your delicious food.

You have our deepest sympathy and condolences. We shall always remember Henri.

Emmy, we love you dearly, too.

Sincerely,

Gordon & Quice
