Dear Henri and Emmy

How happy we were to receive you in our City and to have the opportunity of meeting with you and talking to you.

I feel I came to know you in those few short days as dear friends.

We did not want that glorious week of music to end - we were so uplifted and entranced by it. However, such things cannot be and life moves on.

The memories remain and we shall often recall the Third Competition with feelings of the greatest happiness.

Can I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the generous gift to me of Henri's Book "Facing the Music" which I have already started to read with so much pleasure.

I hope that your stay in Paris was a happy one and that in time you get back to Los Angeles safely.

Think of us here from time to time as we shall think of you.

With my warmest regards.

Sincerely yours
John
