Dear Mr. Temianka,

I am writing to thank you for inviting me to your home to play for you. I appreciate the suggestions that you gave me and your spending time with me. Also, the book you gave me was wonderful. It was so interesting that I finished reading it a week after you gave it to me.

The main thing I want to thank you for is giving me the opportunity to have Mr. Zearottas my accompanist. I have never before had an accompanist like that. He made the music so exciting.

Hastly, thank you very much for the honorarium. It is the most I have gotten for eight minutes of playing!

Sincerely,

Haldon Martinson
