SIR ROBERT MAYER, C.H.

22, BLOMFIELD STREET, EC2M 7AP

01-588 4714.

17th March 1976.

My dear Henry,

I thought I was fairly varied in my taste and activities, but judging from your welcome letter of March 10th you beat me hollow.

As far as I can see from your busy timetable you may be home after 21st August which means you will be there when the London Schools Symphony Orchestra performs on the West Coast in the second half of September. If you are interested you need only ask Ernest Fleischmann for particulars as he is the key person in the enterprise.

If in all your travels you feel anybody wants to be put in touch with Youth and Music we are always here to serve.

My warm greetings to you both.

as always

Robert
