My dear Henis,

Cruste your bread upon the waters. How right was that great Jesus. If Dorothy and even put you in our debt in your youth. You are ~~now~~ repaying it with interest. How' your warm friendship and generous attention. The convivial evening with you & Mary I will not easily forget.

The tons which brought me here suffered from far too many cooks. I will not repeat it altho' our 100 young players will not forget it. It is now our turn in London & you are likely to hear from me when the time is ready for action.

To you both in enduring friendship

Robert
