My dear Henri,

Create your bread upon the waters. Your right was that great Jesus, if Dorothy and even past you in our debt in your youth. You are now repaying it with interest too. Your warm friendship and generous attention. The convivial evening with you and many I will not easily forget.

The tons which brought me here suffered from far too many cooks. I will not repeat it although 100 young players will not forget it. It is worn out. In London you are likely to hear from me when the time is ready for action.

To you both in enduring friendship
