Senator George McGovern
United States Senator
Room 362
Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Senator McGovern:

I have been your consistent supporter in word and deed ever since you emerged on the national scene as a voice of sanity. I am therefore doubly dismayed to read your statement in today's Los Angeles Times, which must indeed give aid and comfort to Soviet Russia, its allies, satellites and pawns. That you should have joined the poor blind politicians who profess to see two and a half million Israelis as a threat to one hundred million Arabs backed by the Russian colossus, comes as a profound shock. Although you do not so intend it, what you are now calling for is in effect the destruction of Israel. Your change of heart fills me with great sorrow and disillusionment.

Yours sincerely,

(Professor) Henri Temianka
