Dear Ms. Meadows:

On May 26th the California Chamber Symphony Society is having its annual Allegro Ball, this time celebrating our forthcoming concert tour of China, about which you may have read in the press. It would be a great privilege for us to have you as an honored guest, which would be particularly appropriate on this occasion.

Enclosed is a formal invitation as well as some descriptive material. I have also written to your husband and look forward to your early acceptance.

Upon your return on Monday, I hope we can have an opportunity to talk about this by telephone.

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
