My dear Lauritz:

You were so very generous in giving your precious time for the television interview we had last year. Now that the program is being readied for showing, our legal advisors tell me that we cannot do so until we have official waivers from all the participants. May I therefore trouble you to kindly sign the attached forms, keeping the copy and returning the original.

I would like to express once again my gratitude for your generous help. It is really for a good purpose.

With affectionate regards,

Yours cordially,

Henri Temlanka
