Dear Maestro:

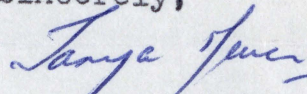

I have just returned to my desk, having laid my sister to rest last Saturday morning. Your kind letter and words of sympathy greeted me. I am grateful.

I was so very sorry that I could not attend your concert at the Vineyards, for I know that I would have enjoyed your music immensely. However, I look forward to attending one of your concerts in Los Angeles in October or November.

If my memory serves me well, I think you are taking off in September and early October for a European trip. Therefore, I shall wait to hear from you upon your return. Meanwhile, we at CAPES shall do everything in our power to generate interest among our members in the Temianka offerings.

With warm wishes.

Sincerely,

Tanya Menci
