Dear Gian-Carlo:

I am delighted with the invitation that I bring the California Chamber Symphony to the Spoleto Festival next summer. I am confident that we will obtain the necessary support to pay for transportation. However, it is vitally important that I receive from you without delay information as to the dates that you are establishing for the Spoleto Festival next year and a precise period of time that you will need the California Chamber Symphony. Most important of all, the Musicians Union, on whose cooperation I depend, must know what fee you are offering for the services of the orchestra and myself once we are in Spoleto.

As I am leaving for South America within three weeks and shall be there and in Europe for the next three months, it is important that I hear from you as soon as possible.

With warmest greetings,

Yours ever,

HENRI TEMIANKA
