Dear Henri:

I am back from Israel for a few days, and by the end of the week I should already be on my way to Spoleto.

The office has been frantically busy with preparations for the forthcoming Festival, and that is why you have not yet received the "official" invitation to appear at next summer's Festival, but I will write to you again about this within the next few days.

In your last letter to me you mentioned having mailed a score of the Triple Concerto to my home in Mount Kisco. So far the score has failed to arrive. Please check with your secretary to see if it was really sent, as I would be very distressed if it has been lost.

Warmest greetings,
