1st October, 1975.

Dear Henri,

It is sweet of you to offer me a party for my sixtieth birthday. May I however beg your patience in this matter ? I may have to go back to my parents and spend the day with them, and if that is the case I shall have to forego the pleasure of being amongst my beloved colleagues.

Diana joins in affectionate thoughts to you and Emmy.

Yours,

A large, elegant handwritten signature in dark ink, likely belonging to Mr. Henri Temianka, is written over the typed name and address.
