August 4, 1963

My dear Yehudi,

Mr. Solomon of Everest Records sent me a copy of his letter to you, which conveys the impression that I am to make an appearance with you and David Oistrakh in London. Enchanted and flattered as I would be to make such an appearance, I would never make false claims to this effect. Mr. Solomon, having witnessed my joint appearance with Oistrakh in Los Angeles this past season, must have jumped to conclusions when I mentioned that I hoped to attend your London concert on Sep. 23.

I would be delighted beyond words if we could make the proposed recordings and eagerly look forward to hearing from you.

With affectionate greetings,

Ever yours,

Copy. Original to London address
