Dear Henri

I cannot thank you enough or with more loving feeling for your and Emmy's presence and for that beautiful tribute you wrote, which I do not deserve but which makes me doubly grateful. You know how I feel about our friendship.

I have spoken to Eleanor about your generous offer of giving a lecture and perhaps a masterclass in Gstaad this 35th Anniversary Festival and she is going to arrange it either through the Academy or the Festival, though it is part of the Festival and will keep you informed.

Much love, in which Diana joins,

Jeanette
