10th June, 1968.

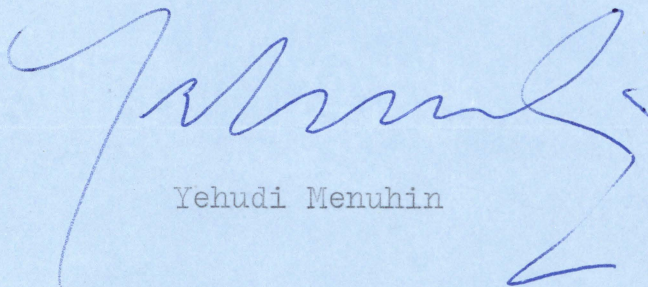

Dear Henri,

It was a great pleasure to hear from you and to have your news. I was delighted to learn about your current activities.

There is nothing that would give me more joy than to be able to look forward to playing with and conducting your Chamber Orchestra. I have written to Mr. Kurt Weinhold of Columbia Artists Management to see whether he can make any suggestions for the 1969/70 season along the lines you mention, and either he or I will be in touch with you shortly to let you know the position.

Diana joins in sending all our good wishes to you and Emmy.

Devotedly,
