My dear Yehudi:

I have not lost sight of our discussion concerning the possibility of a joint appearance of our orchestras. Please let me know how you would view this.

It would be great if we could plan some unusual program, or set of programs, that might include such works as Vaughan Williams' Variations on a Theme by Thomas Tallis.

Incidentally, I am planning to be in Europe during September, October and November of 1970.

All is well with us and we are looking forward to your next visit.

With fond greetings to all of you.

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
