Dear, dear Professor Temianka

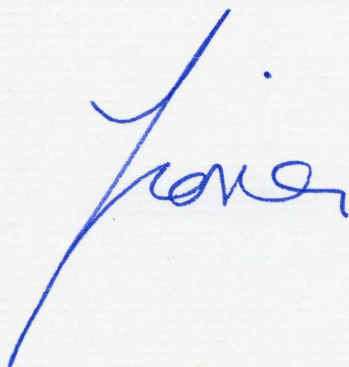

How sweet of you to send me a copy of your marvellous poem - how clever you are.

You - and your gorgeous wife - had, in fact, already cheered me up and I will long remember what you said to me at the time. The more I think about your words, the more I realise that you are absolutely right. Thank you for adding to my meagre stock of wisdom!

You both "made" the Concours for me and I only wish I could have seen more of you - I hope for better luck next time.

With warmest best wishes

Yours sincerely

12th October 1985
