Dearest Henri

I have no doubt that you will pull through brilliantly with your excellent specialists who must be the very best that the world can offer. I am already encouraged by the thought that they believed you would be sufficiently recovered to join me in Paris. Perhaps, Henry, we may replace it with another competition, perhaps the one in Folkestone or, even better, the London ✶ International Quartet Competition.

Diana joins in every affectionate and encouraging thought, both to you and Emmi

It would be wonderful to have you with us there
