

10-14-1942

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (menuhin)

Yehudi Menuhin

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Menuhin, Yehudi, "Henri Temianka Correspondence; (menuhin)" (1942). Henri Temianka Correspondence. 1441.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence/1441

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Henri Temianka Archives at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Henri Temianka Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (menuhin)

Keywords

Henri Temianka, Yehudi Menuhin, October 14, 1942, culture, virtuosity in musical performance, violinist, chamber music, camaraderie, Nola Nicholas, husband, wife, recreation and entertainment, health and sickness, Allies, tobacco, Rose

Oct. 14, 1942

Dear Hemic—

First of all I want to say how happy I was to receive your letter, which was not only the 'silver lining' to your flu' but silver lining as well for us to the grey cloud of your long absence. I trust by now you are fully recovered and back at work.

My otherwise inexcusable delay in answering your welcome invitation to participate in a broadcast to Australia, was necessitated by the uncertainty of my own plans, without which I could give you no answer.

As it just turned out, I am leaving for England within the next few days, upon the invitation of the B.B.C. to give a few concerts
at allied camps and at Albert Hall.
Kindly keep this within the family bosom. In December, when I have a few weeks free we could arrange
this broadcast.

I know that whenever you can spare the time you are welcome here; do not hesitate therefore to give me a warning announcing your arrival. If there are any messages I can deliver for you
"over there" do let me know.

Love to you and Rosy from us all, devotedly, Gertrude

(your regards are still here)

[[Nick Dante 3/28/18]]

[[Henri Temianka Correspondence
Yehudi Menuhin
Letter #5]]

[[Page 1 – Letter]]

Oct. 14, 1942

Dear Henri –

First of all I want to say how happy I was to receive your letter, which was not only the “silver lining” to your flu, but silver lining as well for us to the grey cloud of your long absence.

I trust by now you are fully recovered and back at work.

My otherwise inexcusable delay in answering your welcome invitation to participate in a broadcast to Australia, was necessitated by the uncertainty of my own plans, without which I could give you no answer.

[[Page 2 – Letter]]

As it just turned out, I am
leaving for England within the next few days, upon the invitation of
the B.B.C. to give a few concerts
at Allied camps and at Albert Hall.
Kindly keep this within the family
bosom.

 In December, when I have a few weeks free we could arrange
this broadcast.

 I know that whenever
you can spare the time you are welcome here; do not hesitate therefore to give Nola a warning announcing your arrival.

 If there are any messages I can deliver for you
“over there” do let me know.

 Love to you and
Rosy from us all, devotedly, Yehudi.

[[written vertically sideways on left side of page:]]

(Your cigars are still here).