Dear Henri,

You should have received my recorded message on your answer phone at your office. The 29th March is the only day I can manage; on the 28th I have a concert at Costa Mesa and another on the 30th. The 29th is the day I have offered the University of Southern California to give a Master Class. I thought perhaps we might meet on the 29th at our hotel, which is supposed to be a very pleasant place, but I do not yet know the name or address. Would it be too much to ask that you, Emmy, Lester and Rita join Diana and me on the 29th quietly at our hotel? I am trying to avoid any undue strain for Diana, and as I would rather leave her in the hotel on the 29th when I am coming to give the Master Class, I think the best will be for her to stay there that day and for us to meet for an early dinner, say 7 o'clock.

With best wishes,

Love Fernando
