My Dear Yehudi:

Your recent correspondence shows a new address, 15 Pond Square. Does this mean that you have moved from 2 The Groves? While awaiting a solution to the mystery, I am sending this letter in two copies to both addresses.

Enclosed is a blind copy of my letter to Monsieur Michel Boutinard-Rouelle in Paris. I am wondering whether anything has been lost in the mail, as detailed information concerning the International Competition honoring you next June ought to be available by now. I have received a number of inquiries from potential competitors.

Many thanks for your lovely Christmas wishes and photograph to which we look forward every year with the greatest pleasure. I hope you and Diana are in splendid health and spirits, and rejoice in our reunion in Paris next June.

Yours ever,

HENRI TEMIANKA
