Dear Henri,

It was so nice to hear from you. I note that your letter is dated Feb. 15th, and as it has only just come to my attention, it must have had quite a world tour on its own!

It will indeed be a great pleasure to make music with you some time in 1959, as you say possibly in the Summer. Please let me know when your plans are more definite and perhaps we can arrange to do something together.

Diana and I still remember with great pleasure our evening with you and Emmy in your charming home in Los Angeles. May all go well with you and your good family.

Diana joins in affectionate greetings,
