Dear Henry,

I was very happy to receive your nice and <sup>new</sup> ~~easy~~ letter and to think of the wonderful work you are doing. I feel quite jealous. I think you are very fortunate in having this opportunity of working on Beethoven and Bartok Quartets for performances. As Miras would probably say: "Some day, when I get a little older I hope to do likewise". Until then I hope you will allow me to join in the Quintet and possibly as second violin in the quartet whenever I have the chance.

I hope your European tour coincides with mine, which will be in March and April.

Nola and children join in all the best to you both

Affectionately

Yehudi
