Mr. Henri Temianka

Very dear Henry,

I thought your tribute to Willy on his 90th birthday was charming and I had forgotten the letter I wrote him. How good of you to have quoted from it.

My thoughts will be with you on your 85th birthday on November 19th. I am especially looking forward to your joining us on the Jury in Paris in October next year.

All is going splendidly in Gstaad, the Festival and the concerts are an enormous inspiration. Everything is on the highest level and I'm proud to say that Jeremy's playing is also on the highest level. And this is not a father's judgement, but a musician's one.

Diana joins me in love to you and Emmy,
