Mr. Yehudi Menuhin
2 The Groves
High Gate Village
London N.6 England

My Dear Yehudi:

Nothing could have given me greater pleasure than the invitation I have just received from the City of Paris to serve on the jury of the International Yehudi Menuhin Competition in Paris next June 15 to 26. I treasure and cherish our long association and friendship beyond words, and look forward to our reunion. My grateful thanks to you for having brought this about.

All is well here. I would like to have time to write more, and reduce my concert activities correspondingly, but I seem to be as helpless as the Sorcerer's Apprentice. I am delighted that my student Nina Bodnar won first prize in the recent Thibaud Competition. We shall celebrate her victory in my first concert of the season on October 11, opening the program with the Mozart "Paris" Symphony.

Emmy joins me in sending you and Diana loving thoughts and good wishes. Above all, I hope that all your family is in the best of health.

Yours affectionately,

HENRI TEMIANKA
