Dear, always dear Henri

Of course you may use the quotation, which, I am convinced through your words, must be mine. However, it is a description of Enesco which would be corroborated by any of the musicians who worked with him. It has indeed been too long, but I often think of you, friend and colleague, and of your musical achievements and your family and social achievements as well.

I will be in Los Angeles, but not until March 1990 and meanwhile only for a few days in February 1989 when Diana and I visit my mother.

All the best for the New Year, in which Diana joins.

*With great affection to
You both*

Always your devoted

Yehudi
