November 11, 1992

Dear Emmy,

It was indeed a real shock of great sorrow and pain to read about dear Henri's passing away.

He was certainly a pillar of strength and great prestige for music in Los Angeles. Of course, we shall miss him very very much.

Even though he had retired from active music making quite recently, still to know that he was around and available for all kinds of valuable advice, information and help was always a great source of satisfaction.

Both Tehmi and I know what a close and loving couple you both were, and it makes us realize very acutely how great your loss is without our dear Henri.

May God Almighty give you all the strength and courage you need to lead your life in this cruel world without his standing by your side both with you and for you.

Please do accept our deepest, deepest condolences and sincerest sympathies. Please feel free to always call on us anytime if we can do anything for you or be of any help to you, because we love you, and of course, we loved dear Henri most sincerely.

Yours Affectionately,

Katey Brackney - Manager
