My dear Spence,

Thank you for your letter of June 10. We are off to a cruise to Alaska and will not be back until the end of the month. If I may be candid with an old friend like you, religious discussions have a very low priority with me. I have a deep emotional commitment to my Jewish heritage, but religion has nothing to do with it. I am a pantheist at heart. I see God in all things, especially in the music of the great composers. That is my true religion.

With all good wishes,

Yours most cordially.

Henri Temianka
