My dear friend and colleague,
You touched me very deeply, trying so much to find a possibility for me to perform with the California Chamber Symphony.

'Helaas', it is quite impossible for me to be in the U.S. in november, due to other obligations. But may I propose, if you think this a workable idea, that you have a look at your '88-'89 season and, if possible, that you let me know during which period(s) you could place me.

In that case I could try to arrange other engagements in the U.S. around your proposal. Please, let me know.

At the moment I even do not know if I will be in New York, in october; as I have to go straight from Italy, (the Paganini Competition), to New Concord, Ohio, to perform the Brahms, give lectures about Nederlandse Muziek and hold workshops. After some other concerts we will perform in Washington and Chicago, but there is a slight chance that I will be in New York, between oct. 19 and 22nd.

If I know more, you will be the first to hear about it. It would be such a pleasure, indeed, meeting you again! Thank you again. Best wishes,

Yours, as always,
