Dear Emmy:

It was very kind of you to invite Lise and me to the celebration of Henri's life, and I'm trying to figure out a way to do it. Alas, on Sunday May 23 I'm expected to officiate at the opening of the American Psychiatric Association's annual conference being held in San Francisco that week, so it looks impossible, and I'm really sorry because I would have loved to join you and your family.

Thanks so much for the invitation for what I'm sure will be a wonderful and moving occasion. Henri was a great violinist, musician, and teacher who made an unforgettable impression on everyone he met, and I feel privileged to have been his student and friend.

Lise joins me in sending much love and all good wishes,

Yours,
