LEONARD PENNARIO

306 South Westminister Avenue - Los Angeles 5, California

May 9, 1956

Dear Henri,

I saw Toronto rather late this spring. In fact, I didn't see it at all! But I did think of you, Emmy and Danny Boy while you were there, and reminisced about the good times we had there last year.

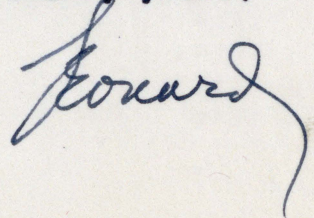

Sorry to have missed you in New York. I think you must have gotten in about two days after I had departed, judging from your letter.

It was good to receive your letter, and I am of course delighted with the news. So glad you had a satisfactory talk with Kurt Weinhold, and that you were able to settle on dates, fee, etc. You know perfectly well that I not only O. K. the deal, but am greatly enthusiastic about it, and look forward to our collaborations with greatest possible pleasure.

Am happy to say that I just completed my most successful season. And the final part of the tour called for quite a variety of music. I had fine successes with the Rachmaninoff 3rd and Bartok 3rd, and at my final concert, played both the Beethoven 4th and Rachmaninoff-Paganini Rhapsody. Saturday I am recording the Khachaturian Concerto here.

Look forward to seeing you when you get home. The Pennarios all send love to you and the family.

Cordially yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Leonard", with a long, sweeping flourish extending from the end.
