dear Henri,
I was delighted to read your clever and amusing letter to "Time"'s Editors. A number of friends called my attention to it. It brought back fond memories of our happy time in Toronto.

The second half of the concert season has been a particularly gratifying one for me. Highlights included a 32-concert tour with the Budapest Symphony (beginning in Hungary and continuing in the States), and Sonata recitals with Lynn Harrell in Aspen (commemorating the 100th birthday of the Wheeler Opera House) and with Wild Rose on the Coleman series. Recently completed my tour in New Zealand and am now enjoying a little R & R in the islands.

Hope you have had a very successful and happy season.

Alto to Emmy and yourself.

Dear Henri,

I was delighted to read your clever and amusing letter to “Time’s” Editors. A number of friends called my attention to it. It brought back fond memories of our happy time in Toronto.

The second half of the concert season has been a particularly gratifying one for me. Highlights include a 32-concert tour with one Budapest Symphony (beginning in Hungary and continuing in the states), and Sonata recitals with Lynn Harrell in Aspen (commemorating the 100th birthday of the Wheeler Opera House) and with Nick Rosen on the Coleman series. Recently completed my tour in New Zealand and am now enjoying a little R + R in the islands.

Hope you have had a very successful and happy season.

Aloha to Emmy and yourself.

Leonard
